'Living to be a century is a privilege given only to beings of light whose heart is inhabited by true, unconditional love'

Homage to you, dear Pierre. Homage to your longevity, to the great faith that drives you, and to the goodness and affection you bestow on your loved ones – all these qualities that have enabled you to cross so many eras and generations!

Homage to the exemplary, authentic musician who fervently served music and composers and whose interpretations will continue to amaze music lovers for many years to come.

For us and so many others, you are and will remain a model - and so much more.

All best wishes, Pierre, on this exceptional birthday!
